Join FROG™ in celebrating Canada's 150th Anniversary in Petrolia, ON,
"Canada's Victorian Oil Town" and "The Greatest Town on Earth"

Before there was OPEC, Iran, or even Quaker State, there was Petrolia, site of the world's first commercial oil boom. From the first, hand-dug wells of the 1850s, to the great refineries and machine shops which abounded at the turn of the century, Petrolia's Oil Heritage runs old and deep as the wells themselves. At Petrolia Discovery, you'll not only take in historical displays and informative movies, but get a chance to see an authentic 1860s oilfield in action.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Historic Site commemorates the life of Reverend Josiah Henson. Recognized for his contributions to the abolition movement and for his work in the Underground Railroad, he rose to international fame after Harriet Beecher Stowe acknowledged his memoirs as a source for her 1852 anti-slavery novel, Uncle Tom's Cabin. It was Henson's life experiences that inspired Ms. Stowe's creation of the character Uncle Tom in her 1852 outcry against slavery.

Along the way we'll share an exciting evening of dinner and theater, with a live show at the beautifully restored Victoria Playhouse and dinner at an adjacent restaurant.

You'll enjoy fascinating history, good food, fun entertainment, and, best of all, an opportunity to share all of it with FROG friends.

Sites are limited, so sign up early to get in on the fun!

Your Petrolia adventure includes:

- 4 nights of camping at Country View Motel and RV Park in nearby Wyoming, ON
- Live theater performance at Victoria Playhouse Petrolia
- Dinner at restaurant adjacent to Playhouse
- Continental breakfast
- Tour of Petrolia Discovery and Historic Oil Fields
- Tour of Uncle Tom's Cabin Historic Site
- Easy access to beautiful Lake Huron
- ... and more!
